DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR §§ 1.84(c) and 1.84(u)(1) because they contain captions printed on the photographic image. Identifying information regarding the drawing should be centered at the top of the page within the margin space; separate views should be labeled FIG. 1, FIG. 2, etc., beneath the drawing. A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Objection to the Disclosure

37 CFR 1.163

The following is a quotation of section (a) of 37 CFR 1.163:

(a) The specification must contain as full and complete a disclosure as possible of the plant and the characteristics thereof that distinguish the same over related known varieties, and its antecedents, and must particularly point out where and in what manner the variety of plant has been asexually reproduced. In the case of a newly found plant, the specification must particularly point out the location and character of the area where the plant was discovered.

35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

As specific to United States Plant Patent applications, the specifics of 37 CFR 1.164 (reproduced below) are controlling:

The claim shall be in formal terms to the new and distinct variety of the specified plant as described and illustrated, and may also recite the principal distinguishing characteristics. More than one claim is not permitted.

In plant applications filed under 35 U.S.C. 161, the requirements of 35 U.S.C. are limited. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 162:

No plant patent shall be declared invalid for noncompliance with section 112 of this title if the description is as complete as is reasonably possible. The claim in the specification shall be in formal terms to the plant shown and described.

The disclosure is objected to under 37 CFR 1.163 (a) and under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification presents less than a full, clear and complete botanical description of the plant and the characteristics which define same per se and which distinguish the plant from related known cultivars and antecedents.

More specifically:

- A. Page 4, applicant describes the texture of the leaves of the claimed plant as "papyraceus". This is not a known botanical term of art. Correction is needed.
- B. Page 5, applicant describes the type of inflorescence of the claimed plant as "corymbiform". This is not a known botanical term of art. Perhaps applicant means "corymb"? Correction is needed.
- C. Page 6, applicant should provide the typical and observed diameter of the inflorescence of the claimed plant. In addition, applicant should provide the size, shape and color of the flowers of the claimed plant.
- D. Applicant should provide the typical and observed number of styles and stigmas per flower, particularly as the overall coloration of the inflorescence is attributable to these floral structures.
- E. Applicant should provide information as to disease resistance, if available.

The above listing may not be complete. Applicant should carefully compare the claimed plant with the botanical descriptions set forth in the specification to ensure completeness and accuracy and to distinguish the plant within this expanding market class. Any further botanical information should be imported into the specification, as should any additional or corrected information relative to same.

References Cited

The references cited on the attached PTO-892 but not incorporated in any rejection herein are made of record to show the state of the art, and are believed to disclose the claimed plant.
